Volume XXX Number 16

April 19, 2006

From Your Minister . . .

The two most important holidays on my calendar are Christmas and Easter. There are a number of similarities between these two days; in fact, each of us could probably rattle off a quick list of what these days have in common. Today, however, I would like to focus on the strikingly different aftereffects these two holidays can have on us. Like many people I am susceptible to an emotional letdown after Christmas. I can't help but feel a little sad when all of the presents are opened and all of the family good-byes have been said. I believe this sadness has its root in the old saying, "Christmas comes but once a year." After Christmas I know I will have to wait another year until it comes again.

Easter is a different story for me; I don't experience this type of letdown after Easter. If anything, Easter gives me a boost of energy. I feel like I am at the beginning of something wonderful, the way I used to feel on the first day of summer vacation. I know that it is partially the time of the year. It is difficult not to feel reenergized when the weather is warming and the landscape is taking on that light green of early spring.

However, I believe that the biggest reason for this post-Easter energy is the holiday itself and all that it represents. I love the message of rebirth, the idea that no matter our disappointments or struggles we can always start again refreshed and renewed. Because of this message we can never say, "Easter comes but once a year." Easter comes 52 times a year. Each Sunday worship service is an Easter celebration. Everyday of the year there is the chance for renewal. My prayer is that each of you will join me in experiencing this post-Easter energy and that together we will carry it into the months ahead.

In Faith,

Rev. David Brice

APRIL 21 BUNKO GAMES

Friends,

I hope that you will be coming to the Chi Rho Bunko Night on Friday April 21st with dinner starting at 6:00 pm. I have a great suggestion for our Sunday School classes and other groups within the church: instead of scheduling a class party or get together this month, why not attend this event as a class? It's going to be lot's of fun.

God Bless,

David Brice

If you have a card table that you would be willing to loan for this special night of fun please contact Kathy Elliott at 868-2580 or e-mail her at rkeliot@earthlink.net. Put your name underneath the table and it will be returned to you.

There will be a men's softball team forming to play a ten game schedule. The session will begin in mid May. There will be 1-2 games per week in the evening. For more information, please call Mike Puyear at 797-8699.

PICTORIAL DIRECTORY

The Membership Committee will be taking pictures in the next few weeks of Sunday school classes and programs at the church. If you were unable to get your picture made for the directory we are in the process of working out times at other churches that are having directories made. This process will take a while to get as many as we can in the directory along with all our many group activities at the Church. Be patient...we want a complete directory with everyone included.

Crosses for Easter

By Rev Donna Barnett

There was a sign on the side of the road advertising “Crosses for Easter”. When I saw the sign, it was strange to me to see the seasonal connotation regarding crosses. It was very understandable, but in it was a lesson. Easter is a time of beginnings, and our beginnings are found in the cross. Although crosses are more prominent at Easter; we sometimes miss the point if we stop at the cross. Our Easter is one of the living Christ and our faith is just as vital. So the sign has come to mean more to me than it did at first glance. “Crosses for Easter” but a living omnipotent Christ for eternity,. Truly we are blessed beyond measure.

Blessings,

Donna
