IN THE GARDEN

The art of meditating on Scripture involves using one's imagination. Instead of simply reading a passage, we must read it, close our eyes, and visualize the scene, perhaps even putting ourselves in the picture. That's what the author of this hymn did.

C. Austin Miles was a pharmacist who began writing gospel songs and eventually became an editor of hymnals and songbooks, as well as a popular music director at camp meetings, conventions, and churches. (I have played for many "tent revivals" when I was at Centenary, a lonnnng time ago. His hobby was photography, and he found his darkroom perfect for developing, not just his photographs, but his devotional life. In its privacy and strange blue glow. Miles would read his Bible in total privacy.

On day in March 1912, while waiting for some film to develop, he opened the Bible to his favorite chapter, John 20, the story of the first Easter. Miles later said, "As I read it that day, I seemed to be part of the scene--- My hands were resting on the Bible while I stared at the light blue wall. As the light faded, I seemed to be standing at the entrance of a garden, looking down a gently winding path, shaded by olive branches. A woman in white, with head bowed, hand clasping her throat as if to choke back her sobs, walked slowly into the shadows. It was Mary. As she came to the tomb, upon which she placed her hand, she bent over to look in and hurried away. John, in flowing robe, appeared, looking at the tomb, then came Peter, who entered the tomb, followed slowly by John.

"As they departed, Mary reappeared, leaning her head upon her arm at the tomb. She wept. Turning herself, she saw Jesus standing; so did I. I knew it was He. She knelt before Him, with arms outstretched and looking into his face, dried, 'Rabboni!'

"I awakened in full light, gripping my Bible, with muscles tense and nerves vibrating. Under the inspiration of this vision I wrote as quickly as the words would be formed the poem, exactly as it has since appeared. That same evening I wrote the music."

What a beautiful story! This just proves that God can use us in the most wonderful ways!

HAPPY EASTER EVERYBODY!!

GOOD NEWS!!!

I am excited to share our good news! We have received a donation of $5,000 for our Casa Esperanza ministry. This money will allow us to continue assisting those little patients from Shriners' Hospital and their families while they stay in Casa Esperanza.

The donation was made in memory of Rev. Robert Scudder. It was possible thanks to Mr. Joseph Mayeux. So, please, Mr. Joe, receive our very special thanks for making this donation possible!

May God continue to bless our ministry.

Rev. Ellie Bulnes
