Forward in Faith

From Your Minister.....

“Contribute to the needs of [fellow Christians], by extending hospitality to strangers.” Romans 12:13

Any of us who have traveled away from home know how nice it is to be warmly welcomed and made to feel at home. Today we have become accustomed to paying for hospitality. You are sure to be warmly welcomed and made to feel at home when you check into a Ritz-Carleton hotel, but you will find out what that hospitality costs when you receive the bill at checkout.

In the Bible stories that we read hospitality isn't something you have to buy. In story after story hospitality is given to the stranger freely. Professor Bruce Malina wrote that in the Bible, “hospitality was the process of ‘receiving’ outsiders and changing them from strangers to friends.” In these stories the guests weren't visitors of the host, they were under the host's protection, a part of his family.

This weekend our congregation will grow by several hundred people as we welcome our fellow Disciples from Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana. We hope to take care of the needs of our guests and ensure they have an enriching experience here, but most of all we hope to change the strangers that we meet this weekend into friends. In the Bible it is said that guests who are warmly welcomed and made to feel at home will leave as friends and praise their host to all that they meet. May we provide such hospitality to all of our guests this weekend.

God bless,

David

COUNT DOWN IS OVER! IT'S HERE!!!

What an exciting time in the life of our congregation as people from all over Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas prepare to arrive at Kings Highway Christian Church for the Regional Assembly of the Great River Region of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Beginning with the first All-Assembly Golf Tournament at Crooked Hollow Golf Club on Friday morning through all the worship services on Sunday, there will be a wonderful time for every one. Registration will be held in the Family Life Center from 3:00 - 10:00 p.m. on Friday. Just remember, it is not too late to register. Forms are located in both buildings as well as on page 4 of this newsletter.

There are tremendous speakers including The Rev. Dr. Sharon Watkins, General Minister and President of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ); The Rev. Sotello V. Long, Jr., Regional Minister in South Carolina; and Andra Moran, Disciple leader and professional musician from Nashville, Tennessee.

The week-end is filled with many opportunities to greet folks and to share in fun and fellowship and worship. An all Assembly reception will be held in the Family Life Center following the Fish Fry and Worship Service on Friday evening. And, don't forget all the workshops, the Business Session and the great time planned for Saturday evening at Sci-Port Discovery Center.

Don't miss a minute!!

By Donna Barnett

This past week has been a rough one with the loss of 3 teenage girls to a horrible automobile accident. My granddaughter had been in the car of one of the victims 3 hours earlier. These beautiful girls were cut down before they had a chance to live their lives.

I heard Fred Lowry, pastor of two of the victims, speak of how active these girls were in church and it was so apparent how deeply their congregation was wounded.

What is so beautiful about their reaction to this devastating event is the unity with which they deal with tragedy. As a congregation they grieve and as a congregation God will heal their pain. It is an example for all congregations on how we should deal with pain. We are "Church" for a reason, which is to be a very large family on which to rely. The Father knows how desperately we need one another in our faith journey and we must treasure those with whom we share this incredible bond.

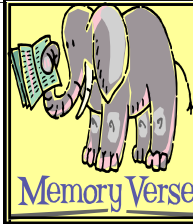

Blessings,

Donna
