Volume XXXI Number 46

November 13, 2007

From your minister.

Here are some people to keep in your prayers in the week ahead as we remember Rev. Dave Farmer and celebrate his life. Please keep Faye Farmer in your prayers. Please keep Dave's children, Kate, Beth, Mary and John in your prayers as well as their spouses and Dave's grandchildren. He had so many friends but nothing made Dave happier or prouder than his family.

Please remember our Church's Elders who worked closely with Dave. Remember our homebound folk who Dave visited. Remember our children and youth who all knew Dave and were important to him. Remember those who joined Dave in serving those in need. Remember the young people that Dave helped to lead in Bible studies. Remember the men and women who considered Dave a friend, who golfed with him and traveled with him and shared times of fellowship with him. Remember all of those to whom Dave said just the right word at just the right time. Remember the staff of the church who all looked to Dave for advice and support. And remember the Senior Minister here at KHCC who has lost a loyal friend, a trusted counselor and someone who always reminded him that ministry should be fun.

God bless,

David

To the Congregation:

Thanks for all of the love, prayers, and concern that you gave during my back surgery and recovery! I seem to be on the mend and am improving every day. Having your support has meant a great deal to me. I hope that soon I can be there to thank you in person.

Your sister in Christ,
Jane Lindsey

Dear KHCC,

Thank you, KHCC, for the wonderful donation of food items for Noel's Food Pantry. Our community has been hit especially hard with house fires. Your contribution will go into Start Up Kits to assist those families. A special thanks goes to Kimberly Fricks for doing a super job!

In Christ,
Susan Foster

THANKSGIVING OFFERING

The Thanksgiving Offering is scheduled for November 18 and November 25.

Just one of the ways your money will be used will be to provide books for the LSU Children's Hospital here in Shreveport. "Reach Out and Read" is a scientifically validated approach to early literacy development. Whenever possible, volunteers in the Well Baby Clinic read aloud to children, showing parents and children the pleasures and techniques of looking at books together. For more information, contact Daisy Kime, program coordinator at 675-6170.

So, KHCC, give generously!

LET'S HELP!!

KHCC would like to help Central Christian Church with an on-going outreach project organized by the Daughters of the Nile, a Shriners' Auxiliary.

They are collecting "pop tabbies" such as attached to soda cans, dot food, small vegetable cans, etc.

The money raised will go toward crutches and wheelchairs for the Shriners' Hospital, to St. Jude's or to the Ronald McDonald Houses.

Please drop off the "tabs" at the Pioneer Class or give to Alberta Statom.

*The Church Office will be closed for the Thanksgiving Holiday
November 22 & 23*
