

The Kings Highway Christian

Volume XXX Number 24

June 7, 2006

From your Minister.

This last Monday was our son, Will's, third birthday. Unfortunately, his big day got off to a rocky start. When he woke up in the morning and Lesley went in to get him she said, "Happy birthday Will, you're three-years-old today." As I was leaving for work he was still crying and saying, "I no want to be three, I want to be two-year-old boy!" I'm sure that most of us have felt this way on at least one birthday. For most of us however it happens when we are turning thirty, forty, fifty, etc.

That being said, it's hard to blame Will for being upset about such a big change, after all he did get 50% older overnight. It would be like me waking up and having someone tell me that I'm now 57-years-old (me no want to be 57-year-old boy).

Big changes do come our way and even when we know they are coming, when we have plenty of time to prepare for them, they can be very difficult for us. There is one promise of our faith that can help us to get through these times and it is the promise of hope. If we have hope in our futures we can endure great change in our lives. It may be the hope of presents, cake and ice cream on a difficult birthday, the hope of better days during a time of trial, or the hope of eternal life during a time of loss. Whatever your situation my prayer is that God grant you the hope that can see you through and cause you to rise to new heights.

God bless,

David

Please keep our youth in your prayers as they go off to church camp this month.

By Rev Donna Barnett

This summer when the heat is on, there is a unique opportunity to perform little acts of kindness. It may be contributing to the fan drive, giving blood or visiting a nursing home. When you take the time to do for others, it helps your spirit.

The world is full of chaos and tension. Road rage is more prevalent than ever. Try letting a person stuck in traffic in ahead of you. A measure of kindness goes a long way.

The other day I was driving out by the Target Shopping Center about to pull out in traffic and I saw bubbles coming from the car in front of me. Little did I know that it was my friend Janis. We pulled over and she told me that the bubbles were her way of spreading "good vibes" on the roadway. I think she is very talented to be able to blow bubbles and drive simultaneously but more importantly she knows that humans need nurture. This week may we nurture and be nurtured.

Blessings,
Donna

"YOUTH SPONSORS - Perhaps the most important role that laypersons can play in the lives of our youth ministry is that of a youth sponsor. While rewarding, this is also an extremely demanding job that is not to be taken lightly. It requires an immense sacrifice of time, patience, and talent, but there are few who have done it that regret the sacrifice they made." – Youth Advisory Handbook

In compliance with guidelines set out by the Youth Advisory Committee, Tammy Bradford (Christian Education Committee) and Becky Flippo (Youth Advisory Committee) will be accepting recommendations for Chi Rho and CYF sponsors for the 2006-2007 school year. Sponsors must be at least 25 years of age; and, while cases may be considered on an individual basis, as a rule, a person should be a regularly attending member of KHCC in both a worship service and Sunday school class for at least 6 months before they will be considered for a position as a youth sponsor.

Youth Ministry Team members should be committed:

To grow and mature in their relationship with God.

To provide a good example of a faithful Christian by regular attendance in worship.

To support, uphold, and know the purpose statement of the Youth Ministry Team.

To agree to attend meetings with other Youth Ministry Team members to study, evaluate, plan for coming events, and to relax and have fun.

To be prepared to attend rallies, summer camp, lock-ins, and/or trips.

To serve for the school year and summer.

To agree to openly express an eagerness and willingness to do new things with an upbeat and positive attitude.

To work to establish relationships with the youth as we encourage them to explore, discover, and deepen their own faith.
