Volume XXVII Number 19

October 25, 2016

From the Senior Minister

Dear Friends,

How wonderful to have had such an uplifting and inspirational stewardship campaign. We are looking forward to making a detailed report of the results in our next newsletter. In the meantime I would like to make a brief report on where we are in our budget for this year. In brief, the income we receive from offering is about where we expect at this time of the year, and for this we are deeply grateful. However, we have had several unexpected repairs this year, which have raised our expenses by more than $70,000 beyond what we had budgeted.

Since January we have had to replace three of our major heating and air conditioning units at a cost of $48,806. We have also had to make repairs to portions of our roof, electrical system and gas lines. These repairs combined with the expenses related to our new green space have cost us more than $23,000.

While we do have the reserves to pay for these additional expenses, I know that no one likes the idea of spending such a sizeable part our savings, even on important expenses such as these. Therefore, to help the church with these unexpected expenses Lesley and I are planning to give an additional gift, above and beyond our 2016 pledge. I hope that you will consider joining us in supporting the church with an over-and-above gift before this year comes to an end.

Sincerely,

David

Disciples Women Ministry

The DWM's Day group meets in the Parlor at 10:30 am on the 3rd Monday of each month, while the night group meets at Chimi V's at 5:30 pm on the 2nd Wednesday of each month. Our doors and our hearts are always open and ready to welcome all who want to grow with us.

- We are very involved within our churches, local, regional and national, as well as within our local national communities. Below is a short list of the groups/ organizations the DWM's reach out and touch, whether that is with time or financial assistance.
- We have sewn Teddy Bear pillows for our (Renee's) Chi Rho children's service project. They are stuffing about 30 Teddy Bears to take to the children at the Shriners Hospital.
- We also sew and stuff Cardiac Heart Pillows and take them to the VA Hospital.
- We also help support a Mission group in Africa and other areas around the world.
- We support the many organizations within our community as well as: The Gingerbread House, Hope Connection, Shreveport/Bossier Rescue Mission, Juliette Fowler Homes, GRR State and Region Projects, GRR DWM, Indianapolis Church Finance Council.
- We also help support many needs within our own Church: JOY Fellowship, Mother's Day Flowers, Scholarships for Children/Youth Camps, FLC Building Fund.

I am so happy and proud that because of our ladies' hard work and dedication we have once again been able to meet our budget.

It is with great pleasure that we present a check to KHCC building fund for $1,000.00. I would like to say Thank You to all the ladies who have saved throughout the year in order to donate to and support the DWM's.

God Loves You!

thank you

My Precious, Loving Church Family,

All the cards, gifts, flowers and visits that I have received over these many months have made me feel loved and cared for. I can't tell you how much I miss seeing you at church on Sunday, but I am keeping you in my thoughts and prayers. Thank you for all your kindness and thank you mostly for keeping me in your prayers.

Love,

Elli Boyd

El Día de los Muertos (The Day of the Death) November 9th @ 6:00 pm

El Día de los Muertos is a time of celebration and remembrance of loved ones who have passed away, much like the Christian celebration All Saints' Day or the US holiday Memorial Day.

It is a day when family and friends get together to pray for and remember those friends and family members who have died. However, the Hispanic celebration El Día de los Muertos adds a little humor and shows how we can mock death and remember our dear ones with joy and happiness. It is a very colorful celebration with dances, a lot of paper flowers and Calaveras (skeletons and skulls).

To honor our dear ones we prepare their favorite foods and treats as offerings for everyone who come to the celebration. To join our celebration we would like you to bring a covered dish (you dear one's favorite food or treat) and a picture of him or her. See you Nov. 9th!

THANKSGIVING OFFERING

NOVEMBER
6th & 13th 2016

The Thanksgiving Offering benefits the Colleges, Universities, Seminaries, and Divinity Houses affiliated with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). These learning communities are an extension of the church, challenging students to understand and respond to God's call to serve.

Stewardship Moment

What is ...

Sharing

Time, Talent and Treasure

Embreacing and Encouraging a Lifestyle of Generosity

Working for the Lord

Accountability of Management of what God has given

Responsibility of God's Gifts

Devotion

Service to God and Common Good

Happiness

Integrating Faith and Life

Pinciple of Reward

By being a good steward of God's gifts, you will be rewarded. Matthew 25:21 says, "Well done , good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!" Stewardship connects everything we do with what God is doing in the world. Wise stewardship produces a legacy of faith and goodness.

As chairman of the Stewardship committee, I would like to thank everyone who participated in our Consecration Sunday and those who made commitments. It was definitely a big success! For those who were unable to attend, we will be sending out pledge cards this week. I do hope that you will prayerfully consider and respond to the spiritual question, "What percentage of my income is God calling me to give?"

I would also like to thank all of those who helped with the campaign and event- Miles Cook, East Ridge for the catering, Bobby and Sherry Shields, Bill and Kay Shaw, Rob Burgess, Linda Dame, Renee Eakin, Tammy Fontenot , Joey and Becky Flippo, Ken Shively, Lynn Davis, Thomas Butler, Pete Bratlie, David and Lesley Brice, the Elders and the Diaconate, Chi Rho, CYF and Christy Duggan.

Sincerely,

Martha Burgess
