FRIDAY, THE FIFTH WEEK OF LENT PEACE: PSALM 4

*In Peace I will both lie down and sleep; for you alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety. PSALM 4:8

Be at peace, not in pieces.

I remember a mosaic table I once found while on vacation. Its top was a beautiful mosaic made of various pieces of broken glass, broken pieces of all shapes and colors. I didn't buy it, but I will never forget it. Why? Because looking at the beautiful design the artist made from those broken pieces brought peace to my heart. I realized that, broken by sin, I had been beautifully pieced back together through the mercy and grace of God through Christ, my Savior.

King David's life had been broken because of sin, yet though he was ruthlessly plagued by his enemies, he trusted that no enemy was greater than God. That's why he could lie down and sleep in peace. God had it covered. God would protect him.

Are you at peace, or do you feel the sharp edges of brokenness? Look to God. Believe that he has already defeated sin through Christ. Let him draw you close in his protection.

Prince of Peace, grant me peace in your presence. Amen.
