ByGeorge

Appreciation for all the people who have contributed to the meaningful conclusion of the time of Lent and to the wonderful celebration of Easter last Sunday! Many hands, talents, and voices made all this possible. Thanks to all of you who made special efforts to build up the body of Christ these last weeks.

This Sunday we will be focusing on the "post-Easter" presence of Jesus and how he continued to amaze and instruct his disciples. We learn a lot about Jesus in those few precious stories of his appearances. For us, we rejoice that his presence did not end in bible times, but continues to teach, inspire, and transform our brokenness into wholeness today.

As we move into another season of the church year and began to focus on regular church programs, my interim time with you will also change in focus. This interim call has several components - which I hope to explain over the next few weeks. The first component is continuing the work of the Senior Minister in the areas of:

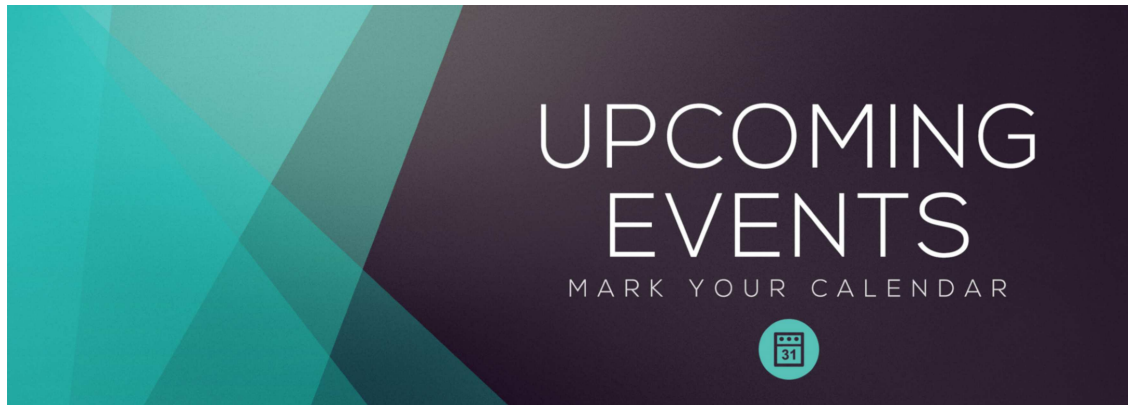

worship and preaching

pastoral care

administration and staff supervision

providing assistance for programs and committees (excluding the Search Committee)

So far, the first two of those have taken most of my time, but as we ease into another season, other priorities can be addressed. I don't think I am going to run out of something to do for awhile. See you in church!
