Guests At Casa Esperanza

We are very happy to have 'permanent guests' at Casa Esperanza again! Since February 28th three new families from Panama have been staying at the house and they will get to stay for the next 8 weeks!

Today, I would like to introduce Analucía and her mom Lisbeth Perez. This is their first time at Shriners Hospital. Analucía had surgery on her left leg and foot, she has a cast right now and in a couple weeks will begin rehab.

She is a very happy, 2 year old girl, who likes to dance and play dolls. Staying at Casa Esperanza has helped her recovery because she is more relaxed, feels at home, and has been able to eat better, now that her mom is cooking for her.

We have been blessed to know Analucía and Lisbeth better since they have been attending our Hispanic service.

May God continue helping us give blessings to wonderful people like these!

Pastor's Class

Pastor's class will continue this Sunday at 3:00 pm in the Family Life Center. Currently we have three young people signed up to attend this class lead by Dr. Brice. Pastor's Class will help them to prepare for their baptisms on April 1st at our Palm Sunday Service.

In the weeks ahead please keep Audrey Areno, Elizabeth Brice and Missha Golston in your prayers as they prepare for their baptisms on April 1st.

You're Invited

Zoe Bratlie would like to invite you to stop by Bistro Byronz, Thursday, March 15th between 6 & 9pm to see Sonya Bratlie's photography showing. Jason will also be playing his guitar and banjo to add another realm of art to the evening. Sonya and Jason are Zoe's parents and she is very proud of their talents. Please join them on Thursday.

A "Note" from the KHCC Music Department

ALL CREATURES OF OUR GOD AND KING

So many stories have arisen around St. Francis of Assisi that it's difficult to separate truth from fiction. We know he was born in 1182 in central Italy, son of a rich merchant. After a scanty education, Francis joined the army and was captured in war. He came to Christ shortly after his release, renounced his wealth, and began traveling about the countryside, preaching the gospel, living simply, seeking to make Christ real to everyone he met.

Francis loved nature, and many stories spotlight his interaction with animals. Once as he hiked through Italy's Spoleto Valley, he came upon a flock of birds. When they didn't fly away, he decided to preach them a little sermon. "My brother and sister birds," he reportedly said, "you should praise your Creator and always love Him. He gave you feathers for clothes, wings to fly, and all other things you need. It is God who made your home in thin, pure air. Without sowing or reaping you receive God's guidance and protection." The flock, it is said, then flew off rejoicing.

That perspective is reflected in a hymn Francis composed just before his death in 1225, called "Cantico di frater sole"---"Song of Brother Sun." It exhorts all creation to worship God. The sun and moon. All the birds. All the clouds. Wind and fire. All men of tender heart. All creatures of our God and King.

Though written in 1225, an English version didn't appear until 1919, when Rev. William H. Draper decided to use it for a children's worship festival in Leeds, England.

But is it sound theology to exhort birds and billowing clouds to lift their voices in praise? Yes! "All Creatures of Our God and King" simply restates an older hymn—Psalm 148—which says:

Praise Him, sun and moon, Praise Him, all you stars of light... You great sea creatures and all the depths; Fire and hail, snow and clouds; Stormy wing, fulfilling His word, Mountains and all hills; Fruitful trees and all cedars; Beasts and all cattle; Creeping things and flying fowl... Let them praise the name of the Lord. For His name alone is exalted... Praise the Lord!
