A "Note" from the KHCC Music Department

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty

Reginald Heber was born April 21, 1781. (As was Queen Elizabeth !!, and ME!), to a minister and his wife in an English village. After a happy childhood and a good education in the village school, he enrolled at Oxford where he excelled in poetry and became fast friends with Sir Walter Scott. Following graduation, he succeeded his father as vicar in his family's parish, and for sixteen years he faithfully served his flock.

His bent toward poetry naturally gave him a keen and growing interest in hymnody. He sought to lift the literary quality of hymns, and he also dreamed of publishing a collection of high-caliber hymns corresponding to the church year for use by liturgical churches. But the bishop of London wouldn't go along with it, and Heber's plans were disappointed.

He continued writing hymns for his own church, however, and it was during the sixteen years in the obscure parish of Hodnet that Heber wrote all fifty-seven of his hymns, including the great missionary hymn "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," and "India's coral strand." (Believe it or not, I actually know the first one!

This hymn represented an earnest desire for Reginald, for he felt God was calling him as a missionary. His desire was fulfilled in 1822, when at age forty, he was appointed to oversee the Church of England's ministries in India.

Arriving in Calcutta, he set out on a sixteen-month tour of his diocese, visiting mission stations across India. In February of 1826, he left for another tour. While in the village of Trichinopoly on April 3, 1826, he preached to a large crowd in the hot sun, and afterward plunged into a pool of cool water. He suffered a stroke and drowned.

It was after his death that his widow, finding his fifty-seven hymns in a trunk, succeeded in publishing his Hymns. In this volume was the great Trinitarian hymn based on Revelation 4:8-11, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty."

This is a beautiful hymn! In doing the research for these hymns, it is amazing how many of them are from the "Church of England", where Prince William and Kate were married on April 29th! Yes, I watched the whole thing, not only to see the "hats" but to listen to the beautiful music.
