How good and pleasant it is

when God's people live together in unity!

Psalm 133:1

A "Note" from the KHCC Music Department

THE SOLID ROCK

Edward Mote was born into poverty on January 21, 1797, in London. His parents, innkeepers, wouldn't allow a Bible in their house, but somehow Edward heard the gospel as a teenager and came to Christ. He eventually became a skilled carpenter and the owner of his own cabinet shop.

"One morning," he recalled, "it came into my mind as I went to labor to write a hymn on the 'Gracious Experience of a Christian.' As I went up to Holborn I had the chorus; "On Christ the solid Rock I stand/All other ground is sinking sand." In the day I had four verses complete, and wrote them off.

"On the Sabbath following, I met brother King...who informed me that his wife was very ill, and asked me to call and see her. I had an early tea and called afterwards. He said that it was his usual custom to sing a hymn, read a portion, and engage in prayer before he went to meeting. He looked for his hymnbook, but could find it nowhere. I said, 'I have some verses in my pocket; if he liked, we would sing them.' We did, and his wife enjoyed them so much that after service he asked me, as a favor to leave a copy of them for his wife.

"I went home, and by the fireside composed the last two verses, wrote the whole off, and took them to sister King...As these verses so met the dying woman's case, my attention to them was the more arrested, and I had a thousand printed for distribution."

In 1852, Edward, fifty-five, gave up his carpentry to pastor the Baptist church in Horsham, Sussex, where he ministered twenty-one years. He resigned in 1873, in failing health, saying, "I think I am going to heaven; yes, I am nearing port. The truths I have been preaching, I am now living upon and they'll do very well to die upon. Ah! The precious blood." He passed away at age seventy-seven.

Personal note from Louise Chamberlain: I have noticed while writing these "notes" that most of them were composed in the British Isles.. Since I have been glued to the "Telly" (as they call TV in England) watching the "games," I thought it appropriate, to focus on the composers from England.
