REMEMBERING

the Rich Blessings of God

A "Note" from the KHCC Music Department

'TIS SO SWEET TO TRUST IN JESUS

How fitting that a missionary should write this hymn about faith and trust. Louisa M. R. Stead was born about 1850 in Dover, England (remember the White Cliffs of Dover) and became a Christian at age nine. She felt a burden to become a missionary in her teenage years. When she was twenty-one or so, she immigrated to the United States and attended a revival meeting in Urbana, Ohio. There the Lord deeply impressed her with a ringing missionary call.

She made plans to go to China, but her hopes were dashed when her health proved too frail for the climate there. Shortly afterward, she married a man named Stead. But sometime around 1879 or 1880, Mr Stead drowned off the coast of Long Island. Some accounts say that he saved a boy who was drowning, and other accounts say both Mr. Stead and the boy perished. Other records suggest it was his own four-year-old daughter Lily, that he saved. In any event, the family's beachside picnic ended in tragedy for Louisa.

Shortly afterward, taking little Lily, Louisa went to South Africa as a missionary, and it was there during those days she wrote "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus."

Louisa served in South Africa for fifteen years, and while there she married Robert Rodehouse. When her health forced a return to America, Robert pastored a local Methodist Church. In 1900, her health restored, Robert and Louisa attended a large missionary conference in New York, and were so enthused by the experience they again offered themselves as missionary candidates.

They arrived as Methodist missionaries in Rhodesia on April 4, 1901. "In connection with this whole mission there were glorious possibilities," she wrote. "One cannot in the face of the peculiar difficulties help saying, 'Who is sufficient for these things?', but with simple confidence and trust we may and do say, 'Our sufficiency is of God.'"

Louisa retired in 1911, and passed away in 1917; but her daughter, Lily, married missionary D. A. Carson and continued the work for many years at the Methodist mission station in southern Rhodesia (Zimbabwe).

Personal note from Louise Chamberlain:

This week has been devastating for our church and Broadmoor Christian with the many deaths. This hymn has really helped me to cope with these difficulties. "In God I have put my trust; I will not be afraid."
