KHCC Casa Esperanza

Meet Our Guests

This is Arianna & her father Hugo Nunez. They were our guests at Casa Esperanza this past summer. Arianna is a very happy and cute 3-year-old girl who likes to dance, dress up as a princess and play dolls. Her father assured us that being at Casa Esperanza helped her recovery so much. She was more relaxed, felt at home and was able to eat better because she had homemade food.

This is their third time at Shriners Hospital and second time at Casa Esperanza in the past two years. Arianna had surgery on both of her wrists. Afterwards she wore casts for a few weeks and then had some rehab.

Arianna and her daddy are back in Honduras now. But before their departure, Mr. Hugo let us know how thankful he was for the blessing of being at Casa Esperanza, "Please tell everyone who works for the purpose of this project that I wish you may find the grace of God in everything you do," he said.

We are also very thankful to Mr. Hugo; he worked hard helping us with the Garage Sale we held in June. It was also a blessing to have Arianna with us each Sunday at our Hispanic service. She got along with everyone very easily.

May God continue helping us give blessings to wonderful people like this!

A "Note" from the KHCC Music Department

O HOW I LOVE JESUS

Frederick Whitfield was born on a cold January day in 1829, in tiny Threapweed, England, population, about 250. He attended college in Dublin, Ireland, and devoted his life to pastoral ministry in the Church of England. His greatest legacy is this hymn about the name of Jesus, written when he was a student. Generations of Christians have loved "There Is a Name I Love to Hear" with its peppy refrain: "O how I love Jesus, / O how I love Jesus, / O how I love Jesus, / because He first loved me."

You might be interested to know that while Whitfield wrote the 'verses' to this hymn, he didn't compose its famous chorus.

Both the simple words and the nimble tune of "O How I Love Jesus" are American inventions of unknown origin. They floated around like orphans, attaching themselves to various hymns in the nineteenth century. One hymnologist found forty-two occurrences of this chorus in early songbooks. Even such stately hymns as "Amazing Grace" and "Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed" were occasionally sung in this lighthearted melody, with "O How I Love Jesus" used as the refrain.

But when "O How I Love Jesus" was finally wedded to Whitfield's "There Is a Name I Love to Hear," it was a marriage made in heaven. We've been singing it ever since. Some of Whitfield's original verses have fallen by the wayside, which is too bad; every verse tells us what the Name of Jesus can do in our lives:

Personal note: When I was a young child I learned "Jesus Loves Me" and "Jesus Loves the Little Children".

The Church and the Board of Trustees have created the "David and Faye Farmer Memorial Trust" as a means to both honor Dave's memory and the memorial gifts given in his memory and Faye's continuing service. The trust is administered by the KHCC Board of Trustees with the advise and consent of Faye. The purpose of the trust is "to provide grants or awards to deserving applicants based on such applicant's pursuit of education or vocations training or retraining" and the awards will be made annually as determined by the Trustees in amounts not exceeding the prior year's investment yield of the trust funds. Only applicants who have been on the role of active members maintained by KHCC as of January 1 of the year of the application are eligible for consideration. An application form will be available from the Church office as of January 2013 and the first awards may be made not later than May 15, 2013. The Trustees reserve the right not to make any grants or awards if, in their discretion, no appropriate applications are timely received. All grants are for a single year, but applicants may reapply annually, and in such amounts as the Trustees determine based on the funds available for award. The grant or award is not to be based solely on financial need or on scholastic merit but the Trustees may take such factors, and any other matters, facts or circumstances deemed relevant into account in making awards or grants. All decisions are discretionary to the Trustees and all decisions are final.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, we are excited about this new service opportunity and hope that as memorial gifts as considered, our Church family will also remember David and honor Faye with gifts to the David and Faye Farmer Memorial Trust.

Yours in His service,

David R. Taggart, Chairman
