KHCC Stewardship Moment

Our Church Elders By Dennis Wissing

Back in 1995 when I was invited to become an elder, I was quite honored and through the years of serving, I have come to appreciate and value the role of the elder in our church. When you think of “elder” you tend to think of older church members who have once served in a number of capacities over many years. This is not what we have here at our church. Our Board of Elders consists of a wide range of ages and talents. Our elders remain involved in church activities and play a huge role in spiritual leadership for our church.

The role an elder plays in our church may not be obvious to all church members. Besides being a spiritual leader, an elder serves the congregation by praying weekly for members and others who are related to our church through friends and family, participating in Sunday worship during communion, caring for members through the Elder Shepherding Program, visiting and taking communion to shut-ins, and attending church funerals and church board meetings. Elders regularly advise church ministers and assist with church management. And last but not least, an elder is a peacemaker and evangelist for our loving congregation.

It is an honor to be called to be an elder. If called, please give prayerful consideration and accept the invitations for the rewards are immense.

Diaconate By Reggie Graves

Ever wonder who those members are who serve communion and collect offerings? Curious how they are selected and what their duties are? They are called the Diaconate and the Junior Diaconate and are designated by the Church By-laws to provide for the preparation of the church for all worship services. These dedicated members also greet and usher worshipers, minister to the sick and needy, help the Elders as required and help with special decorations such as the Easter lilies and poinsettias. They are involved in Christmas Eve Services, Vacation Bible School, the Senior banquet and both the Traditional and Contemporary Worship Services. The Diaconate has no specific budget but arranges for necessities through other committees.

A "Note" from the KHCC Music Department

AT CALVARY

When Dr. R. A. Torrey was president of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, he received a letter from a distressed father. The man, a pastor, had a prodigal son named Bill who was breaking his heart. Would Dr. Torrey let the boy enroll at Moody? Dr. Torrey replied that while he sympathized with the man, it wasn't possible to admit the boy. Moody was a Bible school, not a reformatory. The man wrote back, doubling his entreaties. Finally Dr. Torrey agreed, provided the boy meet with him daily and abide by the rules.

The arrangement didn't go well at first, and Dr. Torrey thought the experiment was hopeless. The boy had serious problems and seemed torn apart by turbulence. But he did keep the rules, and day by day he ventilated his frustrations to Dr. Torrey and ---as it turned out--- was more attentive to Torrey's answers than it appeared.

To make a long story short, several years later that boy, William R. Newell, was a beloved professor at Moody Bible Institute.

In 1895, William began thinking of putting his testimony into verse form. The idea rolled around in the back of his mind for several weeks, then one day on his way to lecture, the lines came to him. Ducking into an empty classroom, he jotted down the word on the back of an envelope. As he hurried on to class, he happened to meet Dr. Daniel Towner, director of music at the Institute. Handing him the verses, William gently suggested they could use a good melody. By the time Dr. Newell finished his lecture, the completed tune was ready.

"Bill," said Dr. Towner, "I was so taken with the poem you gave me that I went immediately to my studio and composed a tune. I feel it could be the best song that either of us will ever write in our lifetime."

The two men sang it together, and it was published shortly after.

Bill Newell went on to become a well-known Bible teacher throughout the Midwest and the author of a popular series of Bible commentaries. He once said that had he not gone through his troubled years, he might never have fully understood the importance of Calvary's grace.

Mercy there was great, and grace was free; Pardon there was multiplied to me: There my burdened soul found liberty at Calvary.

Personal note! I never go without an envelope, or notepad. I never know when God is going to reach out to me and give me a hymn.
