Fellowship Dinner by Chef Hector

Host: Christian Men's Fellowship

For: Juliette Fowler

Where: KHCC Family Life Center

Date: November 14, 2012

Time: 6:30 pm

Kings Highway will be treated to a king's feast on Nov. 14 when Chef Hector and friends from Juliette Fowler Homes in Dallas will be joining us for a special Fellowship dinner and program in recognition of Fowler's 120th anniversary. Hector Aguilar, the Executive Chef at Fowler, has planned an amazing dinner that he is personally preparing while Sabrina Porter and David Pennybacker from Juliette Fowler Homes will share the Fowler story. Founded in 1892 with a $4,000 gift and the land to start a home for indigent women and children, Juliette Fowler Homes, Inc. today is home to about 355 adult residents on a 24-acre campus at 1234 Abrams Road in Dallas. Known as Dallas' first female philanthropist, Juliette Peak Fowler was part of the Peak family, East Dallas farmers. The Fowler campus is also home to six foster children residing in a home with loving foster parents. Sabrina is President and CEO of Fowler and David is Executive Director of Ministries. Fowler is celebrating its 120th anniversary by establishing a prayer garden named in honor of Kay C. Ellis, Fowler's recently retired President and CEO. Fowler has invited individuals, families, Sunday-school classes, churches, schools and businesses to commemorate the anniversary by being a part of the commemorative brick garden. More information is available at www.Fowlerhomes.org.

OPPORTUNITIES TO GIVE & SERVE

Operation Christmas Child ▪ Touch the heart of a needy child this Christmas with a gift-filled shoe box and the Good News of Jesus Christ. 2012 marks an important milestone for Operation Christmas Child as we surpass reaching 100 million children with God's love since the start of the project in 1993. Through gift-filled shoe boxes and evangelistic materials, hurting children across the globe are hearing the Good News of Jesus Christ. Here are some ways you can get involved. Pray. Pray that God will touch the heart of every child who receives a shoe box gift, and that He will bring many children and families to faith in Jesus Christ. Pack A Gift. A Shoe box filled with small toys and other gifts can open hurting hearts to God's love. Instructional brochures may be available at your church, or you can find everything you need online at samaritanaspurse.org/occ. Include $7 Donation. Delivering shoe box gifts overseas is costly. Give $7 per box to cover shipping and other project expenses. Donate online to follow your box (see below). Volunteer. Make an eternal impact on the lives of children through volunteer opportunities ranging from short-term service at a drop-off location or Processing Center to seasonal involvement as a project leader to year-round roles on an Area Team. Go to samaritanaspurse.org/occ to learn more. You may also drop off your gift here at KHCC in the basket located in the Family Life Center Welcome Center and the basket in the Welcome Center in front of the Elevators.

A "Note" from the KHCC Music Department

WHEREVER HE LEADS, I'LL GO

The twentieth century produced no greater hymnist than Baylus Benjamin McKinney, who wrote such classics as "Breathe on Me," "Have Faith in God," "Send a Great Revival," "Lord Lay Some Soul Upon My Heart," "Let Others See Jesus in You," and "The Nail-Scarred Hand."

McKinney was born in Heflin, Louisiana, during the summer of 1886. He attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and after further training in music, he returned to the seminary as a member of the music faculty. When the Great Depression sent the seminary into financial crisis, McKinney resigned to serve as assistant pastor of the Travis Avenue Baptist Church in Fort Worth.

In 1935 McKinney was named music editor for the Baptist Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. In January of the following year, he traveled to Clinton, Alabama, to participate in the Alabama Sunday School Convention, where he led the music. The featured speaker at the meetings was his good friend, R. S. Jones, missionary to Brazil. Late one afternoon as the two men had supper together, Jones told McKinney that the doctors were forbidding him from returning to Brazil. His health wouldn't allow it.

McKinney's heart went out to his friend, and he asked if Jones had any idea what he'd do now. "I don't know," said Jones, but "wherever He leads I'll go." It was a sentence that lingered in McKinney's mind. Returning to his hotel, McKinney sat down and wrote the words and music of this hymn before leaving for the convention session that night. After Jones preached, McKinney told the audience of their earlier conversation, and handing a copy of the music to the organist, he sang it as a solo for the first time. Wherever He leads, I'll go. Wherever He leads I'll go; I'll follow my Christ who loves me so; Wherever He leads I'll go.

For the next several years, McKinney traveled widely among Southern Baptists, promoting the ministry of Christian music and leading singing in churches and conventions. On Sunday, September 7, 1952, McKinney left a conference in Ridgecrest, North Carolina, heading for Gatlinburg, Tennessee. Near Bryson City, North Carolina, he was killed in a car wreck.

He left behind a wife, two sons, several brothers, and a legacy of hundreds of hymns.

(Personal note) I will be at church on the 11th of November, and will play this beautiful hymn for the offertory, then the next day, (Monday) is when I will have the procedure on my brain for an aneurysm. I will be in ICU overnight, then, if all goes well, I will go home the next day. Please keep me and CC in your prayers. I love you all so much and I know how much you like these "notes," but I don't know when I will be able to start doing them again after this one.
