Stewardship Thought

The most common myth about money is that having more will make me more secure. It won't. Wealth can be lost instantly through a variety of uncontrollable factors. Real security can only be found in that which can never be taken from you – your relationship with God.

Dee Dee Hall

October 15, 1932 – September 12, 2012

“Life is but a moment in time. Its impact is measured by what you leave behind.”

Barbara Lenora Lytle Hall (Dee Dee) was born on October 15, 1932, in Shreveport, Louisiana, and passed away on September 12, 2012. In her nearly 80 years, Dee Dee lived an exuberant, loving, and artistic life.

Dee Dee's vibrant personality is captured in her joyous, colorful paintings. She was a prolific artist; her body of work spanned nearly all the eight decades of her life. Although her paintings encompass many styles – medieval, “old master,” and abstract – they all are colorful, dramatic, and instantly recognizable by those who have seen and know her work. Dee Dee was a longtime member of Louisiana Artists and participated in numerous local and regional art exhibits, including the Louisiana Artists annual shows and exhibits at Art Space, Karpeles Museum, the Women's Department Club of Shreveport, Centenary College, and galleries in Lake Charles, Louisiana, and Hot Springs, Arkansas. Her work hangs in private collections throughout the region and in Athens, Greece.

Dee Dee's passions included fashion, decorating, opera, (sometimes) knitting, and gourmet cooking. She adored animals and surrounded herself with dogs (Spaniels and Setters) and cats all her life. Dee Dee touched the lives of those who knew her and is greatly missed. She was kind, generous, fun-loving, intelligent, and gifted with a lively sense of humor. She was life-long member of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) first at Central Christian Church and later at Kings Highway Christian Church.

Dee Dee was born Barbara Lenora Swor, the only daughter of John Swor and Sarah Evans. Her father passed away suddenly when she was three months old, and her mother Sarah married James Chester Lytle a few years later. When Barbara was 6 years old, she announced to her parents that she wanted to be called Dee Dee, a name that stuck for the rest of her life. Dee Dee graduated from Fair Park High School and earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Centenary College of Louisiana. At Centenary, she studied under the late Don Brown and Elizabeth Friedenbergh. She was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority and was named a Centenary Campus Beauty. She married William Turner Hall III (Bill) on June 21, 1958, and they had one daughter, Cassandra. They lived in Marshall, Texas, for several years before returning to Shreveport. Dee Dee is survived by her daughter, Cassandra, and her cousin, Martha Carol Swor.

A memorial service celebrating the life of Dee Dee Hall will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday, September 7 at Kings Highway Christian Church, located at 806 Kings Highway, Shreveport, LA. A visitation precedes the service at 10:00 am.
