Kings Highway Christian

From the Minister. . .

When I sit down to write a column for our church newsletter my goal is to communicate ideas that will enlighten and inspire and to do so within the limited space of this document. One hundred and fifty years ago today (November 19, 1863) the President of the United States gave an address that, in just a few words, said so much about who we were and are as a nation. I include the text of this brief speech below in the hopes that it will inspire you to persevere through all the personal challenges that you face in the days to come.

“Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

“Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

“But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate -- we can not consecrate -- we can not hallow -- this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us -- that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion -- that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain -- that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom -- and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.”

—Abraham Lincoln November 19, 1863

David

Dear Parents:

Just a quick note to update you on plans for our December 8th Christmas program! There will be a presentation in the sanctuary at 4:30 that will include children and youth. Then children and youth will present music in the Family Life Center during the fellowship dinner.

Here's a schedule of dates and times to put on the calendar:

Sunday, November 24th – Youth Symphonic group - meet in the choir room at 3:00. Youth Rock and Kidz Rock will meet in the FLC at 3:00 (this is a change to give us extra time).

Sunday, December 1st -- No music practice or activities due to the holiday.

Saturday, December 7th – Practice from 10:00 a.m. until noon (meet in the sanctuary).

Sunday, December 8th – Final practice from 3:00 until 4:00. Program begins at 4:30 in the sanctuary.

Thanks as always for your support of our music program!

Sincerely,

Craig Pratt, Minister of Music
