WORD of the day

1 Thessalonians 3:12-13

And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you.

And may he strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

I FROM THE Minister, I

There are many exciting and rewarding aspects of being your minister, but one of my favorite responsibilities is teaching. I love teaching the Wednesday Morning Bible Study here at KHCC. Not only do I learn a great deal about scripture as I prepare for the Bible study each week, I also learn a great deal through the discussions we have during the class and from the questions and comments of those participating. We usually have around 20 in attendance each week; a part of what makes our time together fun and rewarding is the people who attend. They are an insightful and interesting group with varied opinions and ideas. They are always kind and respectful of each other but they are also very funny. In short, this Bible study is a pleasure to teach.

I also love teaching our Pastor's Class each year. The purpose of this class is to get our young people ready to decide whether or not they wish to be baptized at our combined worship service on Palm Sunday. Most of these 11-and-12-year-olds have been in church all of their lives and already have a good understanding of Christian beliefs. Pastor's class is an opportunity to bring everything they have learned about their faith into focus and to help them understand the deeper meaning of making their confession of faith and being baptized. During the weeks preceding Holy Week I also have the chance to meet individually with adults who have never been baptized before and are now ready to take that important step. If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about being baptized -- child or adult -- please let me know.

In the coming months I am going to have the chance to do more teaching as Lesley and I prepare to start a new adult Sunday school class here at KHCC. The focus of this class will be Bible study, service, and creating a welcoming fellowship. While all adults will be welcome, we hope that this class will provide a needed small group fellowship for our younger adults, both married and single, as well as those adults who wish to be out of class in time for our 11:11 worship service. This new class will meet for the first time on Easter Sunday (April 20th). Please let me know if you are interested in giving this new class a try.

I hope you have a wonderful week,

David

2014 Easter Offering April 13th—April 20th

Living water flows from ministries and new church planters

Living water is flowing and is sparking mission and ministry around the world. Thanks to the Easter Offering, which provides support to the new church movement of Hope Partnership for Missional Transformation, living water is helping to plant new congregations and nurture ministry leaders such as Antonio Davis, new church planter and pastor of the New Direction Christian Church campus in Holly Springs, Miss.

Lenten Devotions

From Kings Highway Members

Reprinted from 1997

Week Three

Eight years ago if someone would have told me I was to become a Sunday School teacher and an Elder in a local church, I would have told them they were talking to the wrong person. At that time, my life was essentially void of spiritual guidance, strong faith, and understanding of Scripture. My life was family, job, and a handful of friends. Priorities were far from preparing for Sunday School or taking communion to shut-ins.

Whether it was Divine intervention or chance, I don't know. But Vicki and I chose to attend a Christmas Eve service at Kings Highway Christian Church and were warmly welcomed at the door by Phillip Semon. With toddlers Michael and Karen in tow, we found a seat. Little did we know that night we would begin to build our church home—a church home that later would prove to be a place where we would get to know God, Scripture, and make friendships that would last a lifetime. It was several months later, after receiving a call from Kathy Elliott inviting us to the Discovery Class, that Sunday School became a part of our routine. Being inspired by Phillip's teaching, experiencing the beginnings of spiritual rebirth and budding friendships, made us continue to come back. Come back we did.

Assuming the role of Sunday School teacher following Phillip was a tough job. After ten years of bringing his message weekly, he chose to retire and the job was handed to me—a neophyte in church teaching and scripture. Although not new to facing a class, teaching the Discovery Class was a new experience for me and preparation became a part of my week. Preparation resulted in questions which allowed me to explore my own spirituality, beliefs, and face issues that for years have been buried deep within my heart. Even today, questions continue and answers are difficult. However, my faith and beliefs are stronger and imbedded deeper in my soul. Scripture is clear as to the role of the teacher in the church and the standards he or she is held to. God appoints human teachers to carry out His word (Romans 2:19-20, 12:6-8, Gal. 6:6, Col 3:16). Instruction differs from preaching in that teaching means, according to scripture, the instruction in faith. Of course the model Teacher and Preacher was Jesus Christ. It is a humbling experience just trying to aim at this standard in one's teaching and Christian lifestyle.

There is payoff for weekly preparation and teaching a class on Sunday. In the quiet of morning, coffee in hand, as I study, I often feel close to God—a special feeling that is a result of being involved at KHCC. The Bible shows clearly the four benefits of having God in your presence. The first of these benefits is joy. Psalm 16:11 says "You will show me the path that leads to life; your presence fills me with joy and brings me pleasure forever." The next benefit of seeking God is that it provides a great light in one's life. In Psalm 89:5 we read, "Lord, blessed are those who have learned to acclaim you, who walk in the light of your presence." Wherever there is God, there is great illumination. If there is dark area in your life, or you are having difficulty, or conflict with someone, invite God into your life to shine His light of grace upon you. Another benefit of seeking His presence is God's Divine protection. Psalm 31:20 says, "You hide them in the safety of your presence from the plots of enemies." Thank God for His Divine protection and shelter in our lives. We all need a hiding place, a place to feel safe and secure. The presence of God in our lives keeps evil, discomfort, and harsh words from others at a level that we can endure. It is during times of sadness, stress, or uncertainty that asking God to join us provides a safe harbor and the will to move on. He will be a shelter and a hiding place for you. The fourth benefit from having God at your side is found in I John 3:19: "This then is how we know that we belong to the truth; this is how we will be confident in God's presence." There is great peace and rest knowing God is at and on our side. His suffering on the cross and resurrection dilutes our troubles and pain and places us at a much happier place in life.

It is during the Easter season when renewal of faith becomes our focus. Let us renew our faith, seek His presence in our lives in the days to come and strive to live the Christ-like life that His word promotes.
