

THIS WEEK @KHCC

ByGeorge

As most of the contemporary worship band will be out of town on June 9th, we've gone to plan B – George's camp and conference music. In fact, the whole service will have a camp theme, and I am inviting all those fellow campers from the 80's and 90's to come to the contemporary service and worship with the regular attendees that Sunday. Please help me get the word out....

This coming Sunday marks the 96th year of KHCC's founding. Preparing for this worship, I miss being able to consult with Charles Ravenna, who was such a wonderful historian for the church for so many years. Charles had an amazing memory, and was an expert on the intricacies of the building, giving many detailed tours through the years. A good bit of his legacy as historian is found in the displays, files, and books of the historical room on the 3rd floor.

As of this writing, we are aware of 7 high school and 2 college graduates among our congregation in 2019. Our recognition is in order for their hard work and diligence, and we wish them the best in their next endeavors! (The Christian Church (DoC) has, from its beginnings, encouraged education – both formal and informal – among its membership and expected it of its clergy. We also seem to be a good place for teachers, as many find a home with Disciples.) Congratulations grads from all of us.
